

I find the airing of a blatantly political movie over public airwaves offensive and immoral. It should not be legal in this country of ours for one man to attempt to use his influence so repugantly and in such an obvious way. If Sinclair were to also broadcast another documentary which was pro-Kerry or anti-Bush then perhaps it would be less offensive. Please do what you can to prevent this offensive act from occurring.